

INDIANA HEALTH INSURANCE EXCHANGE SYMPOSIUM

INDIANA GOVERNMENT CENTER AUDITORIUM
TUESDAY, OCTOBER 11, 2011

CLICK HERE TO REGISTER TODAY!

Indiana must make key decisions related to health insurance exchanges before 2013. The Symposium will feature national experts in the fields of medicine, insurance and health policy to discuss the implications of a health insurance exchange in Indiana.

TENTATIVE AGENDA

- 11:30 AM Lunch - Indiana Government Center Atrium, adjacent to Auditorium
- 12:15 PM Welcome and Introductions
June Lyle, Chair, Healthcare Implementation Work Group
The Honorable Charlie Brown, Ranking Minority Member, House Public Health Committee
- 12:30 PM Keynote Address: Health Care Reform State of Play – What’s at Stake for Indiana
Tricia Brooks, Senior Fellow, Georgetown University Health Policy Institute’s Center for Children and Families
- 1:30 PM To Exchange or Not to Exchange
The Daniels Administration (Seema Verma)
National Academy for State Health Policy (Anne Gauthier)
National Conference of State Legislators (Rachel Bevins Morgan)
The Heartland Institute (Benjamin Domenech)
- 2:45 PM Exchange Design: Options for Indiana
National Committee for Quality Assurance (Paul Cotton)
Trinity Health Systems (Preston Gee)
America’s Health Insurance Plans
- 4:30 PM Meeting the Unique Needs of Special Populations
Georgetown University Health Policy Institute (Tricia Brooks)
State Associations of Addiction Services (Enzo Pastore)
American Cancer Society (David Woodmansee)
AARP (Patrick Willard)

Because attendance is FREE, limited seating will be available. Register Today!
Registration Deadline: Thursday, October 6th

Sponsored by The Healthcare Implementation Work Group, consisting of 40 Indiana consumer and provider organizations working to ensure Indiana makes sound decisions in implementing the Affordable Care Act. A complete list of participating organizations will be included in the registration materials.