Campus and Community Life (CCL) serves to enhance student involvement through programs, student organizations, leadership opportunities, and experiences for students that allow for the practical application of what is learned in the classroom. CCL is the home for several areas of campus co-curricular involvement including: campus programming, support for student organizations, fraternity and sorority life, cultural and diversity programming, leadership education, civic engagement, first-year programs, and the Multimedia Production Center. This document includes highlights from 2008-2009, including some of the partnerships that have developed between CCL, Schools, and school-based organizations.

Student Organizations

- CCL supports over 300 Registered Student Organizations, undergraduate and graduate. It is estimated that over 4,480 students participate in student organizations.
- 164 out of 305 registered student organizations were associated with a school or major.
- 26 school-based organizations sent representatives to 36 optional Student Organization Leadership Development (SOLD) sessions.
- 58 advisors from school-based organizations attended six advisor trainings.

Multicultural Student Engagement

- Over 2,500 individuals attended events sponsored by student organizations and CCL to honor the annual cultural heritage month celebrations that span six different months during the academic year.
- Partnerships with schools and school-based organizations were central to the development of cultural heritage month programming and a variety of initiatives.
- Cultural Leadership Lunches, a new initiative, involved community and campus leaders discussing their journey into leadership and how their culture played a role in their success.
- 13 Schools supported the 2009 King Dinner. Six Schools supported the 2009 Cesar Chavez Dinner.

First-Year Programs

- Over 2,600 first-year students were introduced to the resources available in CCL and to student involvement opportunities during orientation.
- WOW (Weeks of Welcome) 2008 spanned two-and-a-half weeks with 16 programs held on and off campus and served over 6,000 students through participant or leadership roles.
- 59 presentations were given to Student Leaders and First Year Seminars on topics of student involvement, diversity, or political engagement reaching an audience of 2,085 students. Students were enrolled in one of 11 different Schools.

Service/Civic Engagement

- The Civic Engagement area, with the assistance of 5 Democracy Plaza student leaders, coordinated over 25 events for 1,000 students. Events included election debates and discussions and a weekly pass the mic series.
- The iVote initiative was co-sponsored with the political engagement project. Six schools and the Campus Center hosted student-staffed information tables about the candidates, voter registration (including absentee ballots), and students answered questions on current issues.
- The Collegiate Readership Program held its first Faculty Development workshop in Spring 2009. 10 faculty members participated in this workshop, led by a faculty member from Georgia State College & University.
- Over 1,632 volunteers took part in 30 different service/civic engagement activities for a total of 17,100 service hours in the community through the Office of Community Service.

- 181 IUPUI volunteers participated in community service through Academic Learning Communities.
- Nine presentations were given to UC, Education, and Business with over 265 students in attendance. Topics included civic engagement and information about ways to get involved in the community.
- Over 1,000 IUPUI volunteers participated in at least one large-scale service event, including the IUPUI Day of Caring, The Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. Day of Service, Senator Bayh Leadership Summit, Service and the City, Global Youth Service Day, Color Your City, and the Cesar Chavez Day of Service.
- 110 IUPUI volunteers provided 5470 hours of service in eight Alternative Breaks experiences focused on causes related to children, poverty, the environment, hunger, homelessness, and disability awareness.

Leadership & Funding

- Lead IUPUI added the following programs: Advanced Leader Seminars, Leadership Link e-newsletter, Cultural Leadership Lunches, Leadership Journeys, Amazing Jaguars, a Leadership Resource Center, and Lead First. Over 1,000 individuals attended reoccurring or new initiatives sponsored by Lead IUPUI.
- Approximately 200 faculty and staff attended 8 Emerging Leader Seminars and 90 individuals attended 6 Advanced Leader Seminars.
- Over 150 students were recognized through the Amazing Jaguars program or received an Outstanding Female Student Leader Award.
- Undergraduate Student Government (USG) consisted of 2 Senators from each academic school and 1 Senator from recognized student organizations.
- 150 Student Organization Grant proposals and 55 Educational Enhancement Grant proposals were submitted to the Student Development Funding Committee.

Fraternity and Sorority Life

- The Office of Fraternity & Sorority Life was created based on recommendations from a 2006-2007 Greek Life Task Force. A full-time staff member was hired to provide support and guidance to the 13 chapters and over 200 students who comprise our community.
- A biannual academic report was published detailing semester and cumulative grade point averages of each chapter in a peer-to-peer comparison.
- In 2008, four new chapters were chartered bringing the total number of organizations to 13. Over 125 students affiliated with a fraternity or sorority at IUPUI in 2008-2009.

Multimedia Production Center

- On average, 416 monthly logins occurred on MPC computer workstations. 54% of registered student organizations used the MPC in 2008-2009; 11% were school-based student organizations. Student organizations printed 34,113 prints.
- A partnership was created between the Office of Communications and Marketing, CCL, and University College to increase video production and awareness of campus activity. Six interns were hired to produce content for the partnership. Nearly 200 video were created.
