A MESSAGE FROM THE BOARD CHAIR & PRESIDENT/CEO

At the Intersection

Last year was an incredible year for the Johnson County Community Foundation (JCCF). A big thank you goes to more than 1,000 community caregivers for helping strengthen the foundation and the Johnson County community last year. Johnson County is fortunate to have a community of caregivers that continue to connect with causes that matter. It only takes one caring connection to change a person's life forever.

As you will read in this report, through the generosity of our community caregivers, JCCF provided more than $750,000 in benefits to Johnson County including grants to a variety of fields-of-interests, scholarships to deserving youth, leadership for several projects and workshops for businesses, both for and nonprofit. The intersections of caring ⇨ connecting were found from east ⇨ west and north ⇨ south throughout the county.

Specifically for JCCF, six special caregivers helped renovate and refresh JCCF's historic 1903 home. These caregivers were contributing in memory of or honoring loved ones or simply saw the need to connect their contributions with historic preservation. These contributors are now lifetime members of JCCF's Circle of Friends and donors to the Manor Fund. The word "thanks" does not seem to be enough to honor such generous benefactors.

JCCF's electronic communication connections were also enhanced in 2012. The JCCF Board of Directors made a commitment based on the strategic plan to develop a highly interactive website for contributors, grant seekers, students seeking scholarships and other interested parties. E-newsletters and social media have also been given a high priority to further connect those who care with their personal interests and causes.

And finally, the financial foundation of JCCF grew substantially last year. Cared for by the Investment Committee, the return on those assets was more than 13% and other contributions grew by leaps and bounds. At the end of 2012, the total assets were above $17 million due to investment returns and contributions. Because of the fiscal caregivers who work with JCCF, we are in the best financial shape we have been in years.

The positives noted above set the direction for further connecting people who care with causes that matter. Without those who strive to make Johnson County better, we would not have the "intersection of caring and connecting."

The Johnson County Community Foundation, established in 1991, is a nonprofit organization created by and for the people of Johnson County to help make the community a better place for everyone.

OUR VISION

The Johnson County Community Foundation strives to be the philanthropic leader in improving our community, today and in the future, by connecting people who care with causes that matter in Johnson County.

OUR MISSION

To enhance the quality of life for all citizens of Johnson County, now and for generations to come, by building community endowment, addressing needs through grantmaking, and providing leadership on key community issues.

☞ A partnership between Franklin College and the City of Franklin received a grant from the Community Impact Fund to create a student art gallery, interactive art studio, coffee house/juice bar in downtown Franklin that would be open to public for connecting the college and community. The innovative partnership has resulted in 66 Water Street Cafe.

GALA | 11.10.2012

The 18th Annual Gala of the foundation was a patriotic-themed affair that honored those who have and continue to serve our country. The elegant atmosphere created in the Johnson County National Guard Armory made for a great evening of dining, dancing and friendship.

A highlight of the evening was the presentation of the Foundation Spirit Award to Dean Abplanalp, board member, for his tireless efforts to serve the foundation.

The event raised more than $60,000 for JCCF operations and a variety of community initiatives throughout the year.

Back row: Kyle Linville, Martha Mahoney, Stephanie Walls.
