IUPUI Partners with CashCourse to Provide Students with Free Financial Resources

Whether you are planning for college, trying to pay for college, or graduating and thinking about your future, it has become clear that the financial decisions you make today may impact your financial livelihood well into your future.

Therefore, no matter what term you choose—money management, financial literacy, or budgeting— it is important for you to know and understand your personal finances to ensure you are making good decisions for yourself and your future.

To help you navigate these decisions, IUPUI has partnered with CashCourse, which provides free financial educational resources for college students.

Use CashCourse to:

- Create a budget;

- Learn about so much more!
