From the Desk of the Chancellor, Dec. 7, 2009

On Friday, Governor Mitch Daniels announced additional cuts to higher education funding. The details of the amount that IUPUI will be cut will not be known until the Indiana Commission on Higher Education makes its recommendations.

The campus and the schools have been conserving resources this year recognizing the difficult economic situation. In addition, the campus's Resource Planning Committee is working on fiscal strategies to cope with future adjustments.

Therefore, while I expect responding to the reduction in funding will be difficult, we are prepared to work toward the best approach. We will continue to update the campus as additional information becomes available.
