Mission

Mission

The mission of the Center for Service and Learning is to involve students, faculty, and staff in service activities that mutually benefit the campus and community. The Center for Service and Learning collaborates with other campus units, develops community partnerships, coordinates and evaluates programs, and promotes service, service learning, and civic engagement to further the academic and public purposes of the University.

Vision

Make service a distinctive aspect of the educational culture at IUPUI.

Other Question(s)

1) How are you dealing with the projected base budget reductions for 2009-10 and 2010-11? For instance, how will the projected base reductions affect your ability to deliver your current level of services to students, faculty, and staff? Will some planned initiatives have to be delayed or terminated?

Our plan is to reduce the amount of programming support for faculty development, predominantly directed at service learning. Our current level of services for faculty development programs include a number of initiatives (e.g., Boyer Scholars, Faculty Community Scholars, Faculty Liaisons, course development stipends) and we will review the impact of each program this spring and make adjustments. Since the campus provides course development funds for the R.I.S.E. initiative, we will no longer fund service learning course development on an individual basis.
