Scope

Indiana University employees who are members of university or campus financial aid staff.

Back to top ↗

Policy Statement

Indiana University financial aid staff employees are required to sign the Indiana University Financial Aid Code of Conduct annually prior to the start of the academic year. The form should be submitted to the campus financial aid directors who will retain the forms as part of their records.

Reason For Policy

Financial aid information is of critical importance to the students of Indiana University as well as to the University's obligations to comply with state and federal law. Financial aid staff are annually required to acknowledge and accept the responsibility to preserve and secure this information and to comply with University policies and the Principles of Ethical Conduct in regard to their work in financial aid.

Back to top ↗

Procedure

Financial aid directors on each campus shall distribute the Indiana University Financial Aid Code of Conduct form to their staff for signature prior to the start of each academic year and retain the forms as part of their records.
